BRING ON THE FESTIVITIES

We don't often have a clean sweep of defeats on a given weekend, but alas that is what transpired over the weekend. The results belied some good football though, and in particular the 6s enjoyed a very entertaining game against Bank of England. The result wasn't quite what they wanted, but they can be proud of a very impressive season. Well done to the Youth as well, who enjoyed another strong Sunday.

This weekend we turn our attentions to the first of three bumper end-of-season events – Long Good Friday. On the go will be Youth games, a Vets game (11am) and a senior game against Raynes Park-based oppo (1pm). It's a wonderful chance for everyone associated with the club – young, old and 'medium' – to integrate with each other, and it should be an entertaining afternoon. For those who aren't playing, do make an effort to pop down and be a part of the festivities. And for those who are playing, please confirm as much either by commenting on the recent Facebook post or messaging Toddy.

Thereafter, we have the Merton World Cup on Saturday 13th May. This will be a six-a-side tournament, with 8 teams and a World Cup-style format with group games, semi finals and a final. It will be followed by a barbecue and drinks in the bar as always. Once again, please confirm your availability when asked to do so. For this event in particular, it will be important to have accurate numbers so as to plan it well.

And the third event, of course, is Awards night on Saturday 27th May. This will likely involve an inter-club friendly, a penalty shootout, the FA Cup Final, the awards themselves, and of course plenty of 'festivities' into the evening. Not one to be missed.

Finally, a quick word about discipline. We've really shifted in the right direction this year, and although there remains room for improvement, it is good to see the number of yellow and red cards having dropped considerably from last season. In particular, we'd like to say well done to the 5s and 6s, who amassed just three yellows each. Congrats to all, and let's look to reduce this even further next season, and uphold the 'Merton Way'.

MATCH DAYS

TURN UP ON TIME.

If a meet time is agreed please turn up on time or face starting on the bench. If you are going to be late kindly let your manager know with a quick text.

RUBBISH

It is important we remember that our home ground is a public park and we need to be careful with our language and also our rubbish.

From this Saturday a dustbin will be provided out on the pitch and please put your empty bottles, tape and trash at the end of the game.

FIRST AID

We take the safety of our members very seriously and as a Charter Standard club we have to ensure that proper first aid kits with each match and certificated first aiders in each team.

- we need the Manager/Captain to check the first aid kit and ensure it has adequate contents
- any player with any health issues such as allergies/asthma/epilepsy/heart issues should disclose these to the captain before the game. (inhalers are important for asthma)
- We also will be running an Emergency Aid training course in November at the Hood and we need volunteers to sign up for that.

VALUABLES

Please DO NOT leave any valuables in the changing rooms, and if a key is not available, take all belongings out to pitch side in your own kit bag or a team valuables bag.

YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED!!

SHOWERS

Teams that have an earlier kick off than other teams, can you please ensure you TURN THE SHOWERS OFF when leaving changing room.

Discipline

Poor behaviour a result the means the club incurs additional penalties and costs when club exceeds different tiers of penalty points (costly to club). I urge every player to think about how they behave and how they speak to Referee/s – can you improve? Do you think your behaviour is acceptable? Can you be an Ambassador for club and support Merton FC? Most Importantly: ENJOY YOUR FOOTBALL.

Match Reports

Please send all match reports to Mertonwebsite@virginmedia.com. NO LATER THAN WEDNESDAY EVENING to be put into the Merton Way. (attached - The score, the team line up, the report and any photos taken.)

SAM'S SHOWER THOUGHTS

I'VE RECENTLY GONE DEEP IN MY MIND AND THOUGHT OF SOME OBSCURE THINGS, HERE ARE A FEW THAT HAVE ROLLED AROUND IN MY HEAD:

1. Sometimes I worry people think I act awkward based on their race/gender/sexual orientation, little do they know I'm awkward with everyone.
2. People say "even a broken clock is right twice a day", but being right 2 times out of 86400 is still pretty shit.
3. If cops really want to crack down on drunk driving they should go undercover as fast food drive-thru workers.
4. As a kid, gaming was one of the most expensive hobbies I could have. As an adult, I feel like I'm saving tons of money by staying home and playing video games.
5. Fire Drills have trained us not to give a shit about fire alarms
6. I came to school to develop an education. All I've managed to develop is an irrational fear of plagiarism.
7. Fishing shows are considered boring, but editors of fishing shows have to sit through hours of footage that is too boring to be included in a fishing show.
8. When holding a cup, you are a cup holder.
9. The reason times goes by faster, as we age, is because each year becomes a smaller fraction of our entire life.
10. We use Horsepower to measure the power of a car engine, why don't we use Sharkpower for boat/ship engines

MERTON FC 0 Civil Service 5

A glorious sunny day greeted the first match of our spring cup campaign (technically the second) and took us to take on Civil Service 4th's.

With the knowledge that we had had three previously tight games against said opposition we traveled to Chiswick hoping for a positive result to keep our interest in the competition alive.

We started the game well and in the first 15 - 20 minutes produced some decent football and had a couple of very presentable chances that had they been taken would have set us on the road to the win we required I'm sure.

That however was as good as it got for us in terms of being competitive in the game.

What followed during the remainder of the half reminded me of the red wedding episode in game of thrones, in short we got murdered.

Through a mixture of poor positional play, non existent communication, ball watching, and an own goal we went in at the break four nil down.

We have lost more than a few this season as I'm sure your all aware but other than when we lost in the cup to a team two divisions below us that we're bottom of the league this was the worst performance of the season by a margin.

With nothing but pride and perhaps a flickering dream of an unlikely comeback the second half got underway.

We produced a more solid performance in the second half and credit should go to man of the match Lofty who put in a performance full of composure, commitment and no little skill that was an example for the rest of the squad.

Again we created two or three good chances after the break that could have produced a consolation goal but in truth we were never really in any sort of control of the game and as the match drifted towards its inevitable conclusion civil service took advantage our weary legs and added a fifth with about ten minutes left on the clock.

A day best forgotten.

Team: Bridgeman, Rist, Di Matteo, Pearce, Welch, Iglesias, Evans, Mustard, Pitman, Fitzgerald, Zhurbiy, White, Benham, Chris (apologies Chris I've no idea what your second name is)

MERTON FC 2 Ibis Eagles 9

This week saw Ibis Eagles visit Joseph Hood in the final fixture of the Spring Cup. On a personal level it was embarrassing day as only 4 regular 4th team players making themselves available in myself (Edward Plaistow), Frankie Kalogirou, Akram Choudhury and Kieran Lee, who on this occasion was forced to be an outfield player. Had it not been for the help of Darcy Evans and the majority of the 5th team (who had all played 90 minutes already) we would have been up st creek! With this being a dead rubber having already lost our first 2 games of the tournament, all I asked from those that stepped onto the field was to give it their all. I believe that is what they did until tiredness started to show. This was evident but only going in 1-0 down at the break was.

The second half was all Ibis. Easily finding their passes as the tired legs started to show. At 5-0 down, Darcy found the back of the net to give us some consolation however the visitors found another 4 goals to add to their tally before Frankie tapped in to double the Merton tally after the keeper had tipped away my (Edward Plaistow/Scholesy) curling effort.

As I'm writing the match report it is worth nothing that our tally could have been tripled after I (Edward Plaistow/Scholesy again!) hit the bar with a sublime chip from 20 yards after finding the keeper stuck to his near post.

All in all it was a disappointing day and end to the season. I just hope that next season my players will be more committed than me!

Starting Line-up:- Sam Singer-Ripley (GK), Delman Babaker, Darren Avey, Steve Burchell, Edward Plaistow, Frankie Kalogirou, Darcy Evans, Akram Choudhury, Dwayne Bedford, Clive Corrigan, Kieran Lee

Subs: Luke Newman, Dulanie Richards

Man of the Match: Akram Choudhury

Dick of the Day: Could go to all the regular 4s (apart from Joe Plumridge and Aaron Loftus who told me the week before they wasn't available) but has to go to John Gridley for deciding a day at the seaside is more important!

MERTON FC 1 Polytechnic FC 2

Saturday 8th April, 2017 will long live in the memory of the Mighty 5s players who attended this game[s] – probably not quite as much for the football, but we will get to that bit later.

If I may, I would like to take a few lines to be serious for a change. There are two ways of looking at this season; one is of sheer disappointment that promotion was well within our grasp, and yet we did an Arsenal and threw it away at the last minute, clinging to 4th as I write this report. But the way I think of it is a season where we were greatly improved from last season. We looked strong, played some good football and remained competitive in pretty much all the games we played. There are some good positives to build on to mount a serious drive for the title next year – so well done to the team for the improvement shown and the only way is up from here!

So, without further ado - the match report. With our promotion chances more or less null, and Poly already having won the league, this game was a “dead rubber” – as pointless as giving D a condom for his birthday, and as dead a rubber as Tigs’s ankle after the first 30 minutes. But still, as professionals we were still going all out to win.

The game was quite balanced at the start, with them perhaps shading possession and stroking it around with the confidence of a side that had already won the league. We were, however, dealing with their threat quite well. That’s until Stevey B momentarily forgot where he was. Clearly thinking that he was in the opposition’s box, he stuck out an instinctive knee towards the ball, and the ball flew into the back of the net from 12 yards out. Terrific finish – if that was Lionel Messi people would be talking about it for years. Unfortunately, 10 minutes later he realised that it was indeed his own goal, that he was still 2 away from Ryan’s goal tally this season, and that we were one down at half time.

The second goal was equally as calamitous. A ball into the box resulted in a scramble, and with the 5s unable to clear, their midfielder strolled in and rolled the ball into an empty net. We went into the half time break 2-0 down and 2 players down – Tigs with the heart of a lion but a body made of glass going off for an unfortunate turn of the ankle, and our hot stuff on the left burning out on his first game back from injury. The signs were not looking good. But lo and behold, we got it together after half time for a strong push. We were dominant, with their only chances coming from crosses which were expertly held by Sam – a part of his game that seems to have got even better as the season has gone on. We were stroking the ball around confidently, pressing and creating good, clear chances. Our breakthrough came when a good, searching ball found Steve Harvey on the right. He pulled it back for Ackers, who controlled his powerful strike into the bottom corner. 2-1, and the game was on.

The 5s pressed for an equaliser, and had some good chances to go level. But in the end, it just wasn’t to be. We had the chances but came up just short – the story of our season unfortunately. But we must look towards next season now and build upon an impressive turnaround from last season.

Every player for us has had a good season – I do not think we would have come as close to promotion otherwise. Everyone should be proud of themselves, and the awards night will be a great celebration of a great step forward for the 5s.

So that’s that for this season – no Naked Lee Time on this occasion. But what we did get was a night of long sausages, big beers in a smashing German establishment, a “better out than in” approach from our very own birthday boy and a calm, peaceful and pleasant night out. We have some great club events coming up including Long Good Friday this Friday, Merton’s World Cup and our awards night which I would expect will be well represented by the 5s. Until then keep it real, stay safe and I am sure we will all look forward to winning the league next season.

MERTON FC 0 Carshalton 7

The fixture no one was looking forward to and it showed. On a great sunny Saturday afternoon, we strolled up on the back of 5 games unbeaten against the champions, who have scored over 80 goals and only conceded 11 in 14 games. Well, no surprises as to how this pans out!

The pre- game warm up was conclude without the captain due to arriving late, but still managed to hash together a team talk about getting amongst them and maybe putting it about, to let them know there in a game... from the whistle, the 7s held it together for around 10minutes before the flood gates opened, it was easy to see that they were there in body but absolutely not in spirit, this was a hiding to nothing. With C6's commanding a 5-0 halftime lead, the 7s made few changes, as well as bing from the captain to play with a bit of heart, the second half was by far better. Keeping it simple, C6s still run the game, passing freely and cutting the team apart a will, but in the final third, the 7s became more resilient, put the tackles in and rode there luck, even manging to win a few corners at the other end.

Eventually, the luck run out, an own goal after a mix up at the near post sees the comer deflected straight in and a thunder bolt into the top comer sees the game finishes 7-0.

If there is to be a silver lining, the Home fixture was a 12-0 affair, so losing 7-0 away must be seen as an improvement. But still shipping 19 goals in 2 games against a team who clearly should be playing at a much high level, begs the question as to why they managed to be put in this division.

On a more positive note, with only 2 games remaining, the Form guide looks pretty impressive for the 7s

ANAM HASSAN

1. Tell us who you are outside of the club. What do you do, how would you describe yourself?

I work in a hospital calling up people to book appointments. It isn't very interesting to talk about and I find people get bored quickly when they realise I'm not a doctor - which is awkward when I'm halfway through performing a prostate exam. Otherwise I would describe myself as mediocre at everything I put my hand to. On the pitch I see myself as a creative player, somebody who brings stability to the team through technique.

2. What was most memorable moment in your MFC career till now?

Ordinarily, scoring my first goal - for the 7s - would be my standout moment. However, it was my performance for the 5s two weeks later - where I grabbed an assist - which made me believe I could compete at a decent level.

3. What is your favourite quote?

I'm all about self-improvement and pushing myself so I tend to hark back to this boring quote attributed to Ernest Hemingway - "There is nothing noble in being superior to your fellow man; true nobility is being superior to your former self."

4. Tell us something about yourself that most of us at the club probably aren't aware of...

This is my first season playing 11-a-side..urm.. ever really, at the ripe old age of 28. Similarly hard to believe is that I'm also 28 years old. I've had to relearn a lot of stuff from when I was a kid, but at the same time, acquired extra wisdom watching all these years from the sidelines.

5. Ask a friend or family member for a reference and post their response of you...

"My Anam is not a communist. He may be a liar, a pig, an idiot, a communist, but he is NOT a porn star." - Dad

6. Lastly, share with us your goals/expectations for the season...

To cement my place in the starting lineup for the 5s. I've seen Tiago step up, which provides me inspiration because he did it despite strong competition in midfield. But to do that, I need to settle on the type of midfielder that I want to be; to play deeper or start higher up.

Player of the season (at Merton): Andy Bitmead
 Favourite team in the UK: Arsenal
 Favourite team outside the UK: FC Messi
 Childhood hero: Ash Ketchum, then later, Cesc Fabregas
 Favourite word: My English teacher used to always say I was 'facetious'.
 Favourite band: RnB or soul music. Marvin Gaye, Let's Get it On is my favourite song.
 Favourite food: The Chocolate
 Dream job: Footballer or Music Producer

2. What was most memorable moment in your MFC career till now?

my most memorable moment...hmmm probably my first game with merton, started on the bench and within 30 seconds our player 'harry' got red carded and gave away a penalty. I remember thinking wtf am i doing here

3. What is your favourite quote?

'Information is not knowledge'

4. Tell us something about yourself that most of us at the club probably aren't aware of...

I never hold onto bad feelings, especially when it comes to football. once the match is over everything that happened on the pitch can stay there

5. Ask a friend for a reference and post their response of you

"he really hates losing"

6. Lastly, share with us your goals/expectations for next season...

MERTON OLD BOY'S

PLAYER PROFILE :

Steve Balsom

Steve Balsom joined Merton fc in the mid 60's as a goal keeper, he progressed to play in the 1st x1 throughout his illustrious career

He one of only a few players to represent Merton fc at SAL & AFA level and earned caps for both rep teams.

As a founder member of "the Merton war babies" steve played "up front" and was known as "goal scorer"

Steve is still a local lad living in Merton all of his life.

Penny Balsom (Steve's wife) played a major role in the organisation of the centenary dinner plus their son Nathan produced the centenary evening's programme and menu.

The Balsom's still attend most of the clubs events and Steve plays in the vets games from time to time.

It is hoped that they continue to support the club as we all love to see them at the hood.
